

The Trogger

Traditional/Burns

Wha will buy my trog - gin, fine e - lec - tion ware,
 There's a nob - le Ea - rl's fame and high re - nown,
 Here's the worth o' Brough - ton in a need - le's e'e;
 Here's its stuff and lin - ing, Car - don - es - s' head,
 Here's a lit - tle wad - set, Buit - tle's scrap o' truth,
 Here's an hon - est cons - cience might a prince a - dorn;
 Here's ar - morial bear - ings frae the manse o' Urr; The Saw ye e'er sic trog - gin? if to buy ye're slack,

Brok - en trade o' Brough - ton, a' in high re - pair? [Chorus]
 For an auld sa - ng - it's thought the gudes were stown-- Buy braw trog - gin
 Here's a re - pu - tat - ion tint by Bal - mag - hie.
 Fi - ne for a sog - er, a' the wale o' lead.
 Paw - n'd in a gin - shop quench - ing hol - y drouth .
 Frae the downs o' Tin - wald, so was nev - er worn.
 crest, a sour crab - ap - ple, rot - ten at the core Hor - nie's tur - nin chap - man - he'll buy a' the pack.

frae the banks o' Dee; Wha wants trog - gin let him co-me to me.